In re Terrorist Attacks on September 11, 2001	03-md-1570 (GBD)(SN) ECF Case
This document relates to: Ashton et al. v. al Qaeda Islamic Army, et al. , 02-cv-6977 (GBD)(SN) and (member case Burlingame v. Bin Laden, et al. , 02-cv-7230 (GBD)(SN))	02-cv-6977 (GBD)(SN) and 02-cv-7230 (GBD)(SN) ECF Case

The Burlingame VIII Wrongful Death Plaintiffs’ Motion for Partial Final Judgments

For the reasons set forth below, and the statements contained in the declaration of Frank H. Granito III, Esq. (“Granito Declaration”), the Burlingame subset of Ashton plaintiffs¹ reflected on the annexed Exhibit (“Burlingame VIII” Plaintiffs)² by and through their counsel, Speiser Krause, PC, respectfully move this Court to award in the cases set forth in Exhibit A to the Granito Declaration solatium damages for the losses suffered by the relatives of the decedents in the same amounts previously awarded by this Court to other Ashton plaintiffs, including other Burlingame plaintiffs, in this consolidated multidistrict litigation against the Islamic Republic of Iran (“Iran”);

¹ The Burlingame (02-cv-7230) and Ashton (02-cv-6977) matters were Ordered consolidated for liability purposes and mandated to proceed under the Ashton, et al. v. al Qaeda Islamic Army, et al. (hereinafter “Ashton”) master docket number 02-cv-6977, with the filing of a consolidated master complaint, and attorney James Kreindler was appointed Liaison Counsel for the consolidated actions within the Ashton master complaint. See 02-cv- 6977, Doc. No. 15, Entered 11/19/2002. The Burlingame plaintiffs, including the 9/11 decedents named on Exhibit A, remain segregated within all consolidated Ashton filings and are identified therein according to their separate docket number and counsel. See, e.g., 02-cv-6977, Doc. No. 465, filed 03/30/2005.

² There have been seven prior motions by members of the Burlingame subset of plaintiffs seeking solatium and economic damages for the losses of their loved ones in the September 11th attacks. See 02-cv-7230, Doc. No. 15, Filed 04/27/2018 (“Burlingame I”), Doc. No. 18. Filed 05/25/2018 (“Burlingame II”), Doc. No. 28. Filed 08/06/2018 (“Burlingame III”), Doc. No. 31. Filed 08/09/2018 (“Burlingame IV”), Doc. No. 63 Filed 07/02/2019 (“Burlingame V”) and Doc. No. 71 Filed 08/16/2019 (“Burlingame VI”). Recently, a motion was filed on behalf of certain plaintiffs in Dickey v. Republic of Iran, 18-cv-11417, who also appear in the Burlingame caption.

and award prejudgment interest on those damages as set forth below. This motion is made only on behalf of the Burlingame claimants listed in Exhibit A attached to the Granito Declaration (“Burlingame VIII Plaintiffs”), in light of this Court’s previous orders granting permission to allow remaining Burlingame plaintiffs to move for this relief. See 03-md-1570 (02-cv-7230) (S.D.N.Y.) (GBD) (SN), Doc. No. 17 Entered 04/30/18, Doc. No. 22 Entered 05/29/18, Doc No. 30 Entered 08/07/2018, Doc No. 42 Entered 09/12/18, Doc. No. 68 Entered 07/29/19 and Doc No. 78 Entered 09/03/2019. Plaintiffs also seek permission for the Burlingame plaintiffs to submit applications for punitive damages, economic damages and/or solatium damages, in later stages, consistent with future orders of this Court and to the extent such awards have not previously been addressed.

Procedural Background

Based on evidence and arguments submitted by various plaintiffs in this consolidated multi-district litigation arising out of the September 11, 2001 terror attacks, this Court previously issued a default judgment on liability against Iran to all Ashton plaintiffs for claims arising out of the deaths of the plaintiff’s decedents (the “Ashton wrongful death plaintiffs”). See 03-md-1570 (02-cv-6977) (S.D.N.Y.) (GBD) (FM), Doc. No. 3008, Entered 08/26/2015. Thereafter, all Ashton wrongful death plaintiffs (including all Burlingame plaintiffs) moved for partial summary judgment for the conscious pain and suffering that their decedents suffered before death, which this Court granted, and certain Ashton wrongful death plaintiffs (including one Burlingame plaintiff) moved for default judgments on economic damages as well. This Court granted those motions. See, e.g., 03-md-1570 (02-cv-6977) (S.D.N.Y.) (GBD) (FM), Doc. Nos. 3229, Entered 03/09/2016 (adopting December 28, 2015 Report and Recommendation awarding damages for conscious pain and suffering) and Docs. No. 3356, Entered 10/11/2016 (awarding damages for economic loss) and 4011, Entered 05/29/2018 (awarding damages for economic loss).

In addition, certain Ashton plaintiffs previously moved for solatium damages suffered by those family members eligible to recover such damages under 28 U.S.C. § 1605A. See 03-md-1570 (02-cv-6977), Doc. Nos. 3295, Entered 06/08/2016 (Motion for Final Judgment for Ashton I claimants including claims for solatium damages), 3356, Entered 10/11/2016 (Motion for Final Judgment for Ashton II claimants including claims for solatium damages) and 3686, Entered 08/16/2017 (Motion for Final Judgment for Ashton III claimants including claims for solatium damages); and see also 02-cv-7230, Doc. No. 15, Filed 04/27/2018 (Motion for Final Judgment for Burlingame I claimants including claims for solatium damages); Doc. No. 18, Filed 05/25/2018 (Motion for Final Judgment for Burlingame II claimants including claims for solatium damages); Doc No. 28, Filed 08/06/2018 (Motion for Final Judgment for Burlingame III claimants including claims for solatium damages), Doc. No. 31, Filed 08/09/2018 (Motion for Final Judgment for Burlingame IV claimants including claims for solatium damages, Doc. No. 42, Filed 07/02/2019 (Motion for Final Judgment for Burlingame V claimants including claims for solatium damages) and Doc. No. 71, Filed 08/16/2019 (“Motion for Partial Final Judgment for Burlingame VI claimants including claims for solatium damages”). This Court granted these motions, finding that an award to the immediate family members of each decedent was proper and that prejudgment interest on the solatium loss amounts was warranted. See 03-md-1570 (02-cv-6977) (S.D.N.Y.) (GBD) (SN), Doc. Nos. 3300, Entered 06/16/16; 3387 Entered 10/31/2016 and 3706, Entered 8/17/2017; 02-cv-7230-GBD Doc. Nos. 17, Entered 04/30/18, 22, Entered 05/29/18, 30, Entered 08/07/18, 42, Entered 09/12/18, 68, Entered 07/29/19 and 78, Entered 09/03/2019.

On the issue of prejudgment interest, a December 28, 2015, Report and Recommendation adopted by this Court concluded that to the extent the Ashton wrongful death plaintiffs’ claims arose out of the injuries in New York State the rate of prejudgment interest was 9 percent per annum from September 11, 2001 until the date judgment was entered and to the extent the injuries arose elsewhere, 4.96 percent per interest per annum, compounded annually, was appropriate. See 03-md-1570 (02-cv-6977) (S.D.N.Y.) (GBD) (FM), Doc. No. 3175, Entered 12/28/2015, pp. 1–2. A subsequent Report and Recommendation issued October 2016, also adopted by this Court, however, concluded that the rate of prejudgment interest of 4.96 percent for all pain and suffering and solatium claims was more appropriate. See 03-md-1570 (11-cv-7550). Accordingly, the Ashton I-XII plaintiffs, as well as the Burlingame I-VI plaintiffs, were all awarded prejudgment interest at the rate of 4.96 percent per annum.

For the reasons below as well as those set forth in the prior motions for summary judgment on liability and prior motions for judgment for solatium damages made on behalf of other Ashton wrongful death plaintiffs, including the Burlingame I-VI plaintiffs, the Burlingame plaintiffs listed in Exhibit A to the Granito Declaration (“Burlingame VIII Plaintiffs”) now move this Court to grant the attached proposed Order awarding them the same amount of compensatory damages for their solatium losses as awarded to other plaintiffs, including the Ashton I-XII plaintiffs as well as the Burlingame I-VI plaintiffs’ prior motions for partial judgment on solatium damages. All Burlingame plaintiffs also ask for permission to continue to submit applications in subsequent stages for economic damages, punitive damages and/or for solatium damages on behalf of those claimants not included in the attached Exhibit (as have all prior Ashton plaintiffs moving for similar relief), should any other applications be warranted.

I. Damages

Under 28 U.S.C. § 1605A (“Section 1605A”), which applies to the claims against Iran, damages available include money damages “for personal injury or death.” See 28 U.S.C. § 1605 A(a)(1) and (c)(4). The damages available to plaintiffs in Section 1605A action include “economic damages, solatium, pain and suffering, and punitive damages.” 28 U.S.C. § 1605 A(c)(4). That is, the “estates of those who [died] can recover economic losses stemming from wrongful death of the decedent, family members can recover solatium for their emotional injury, and all plaintiffs can recover punitive damages.” Valore v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 700 F.Supp.2d 52, 83 (D.D.C. 2010). All Burlingame plaintiffs are therefore entitled to compensation under Section 1605A for the solatium and economic losses suffered as a result of the wrongful death of each of their decedents.

A. Solatium Damages

Section 1605A specifically provides for solatium damages. Under that provision, family members of the decedents may recover for “the mental anguish, bereavement, and grief that those with a close relationship to the decedent experience as a result of the decedent’s death, as well as the harm caused by the loss of decedent’s society and comfort.” Dammarell v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 281 F.Supp. 2d 105, 196 (D.D.C. 2003), vacated on other grounds, 404 F.Supp. 2d 261 (D.D.C. 2005). Other courts have previously noted that “[a]cts of terrorism are by their very definition extreme and outrageous and intended to cause the highest degree of emotional distress.” Belkin v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 667 F.Supp. 2d 8, 22 (D.D.C. 2009). Given that, in FSIA cases, solatium claims have been treated as comparable to claims for intentional infliction of emotional distress, in which the immediate family members of the decedents are treated as direct victims. See, e.g. Salazar v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 370 F.Supp. 2d 105, 115 n.12 (D.D.C. 2005) (“[c]ourts have uniformly held that a terrorist attack – by its nature – is directed not only at the victims but also at the victims’ families.”); Surette v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 231 F.Supp. 2d 260, 267 n.5 (D.D.C. 2002) (treating solatium claim as “‘indistinguishable’ from the claim of intentional infliction of emotional distress.”) (quoting Wagner v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 172 F.Supp. 2d 128, 135 n.11 (D.D.C. 2001)). Thus, this Court has previously awarded solatium damages to “immediate family members” who, though not physically present at the site of the terrorist attacks, were nevertheless intended victims of the terrorist activities. See In re Terrorist Attacks on Sept. 11, 2001, No. 03-MDL-1570 (GBD)(FM) (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 12, 2016) (ECF No. 3358); In re Terrorist Attacks on Sept. 11, 2001, No. 03-MDL-1570 (GBD)(FM), 2015 WL 9468813 (S.D.N.Y. Dec 28, 2015) (“Ashton Report”); and In re Terrorist Attacks on Sept. 11, 2001, No. 03-MDL-1570 (GBD)(FM), 2012 WL 4711407 (S.D.N.Y. Oct 3, 2012).

In defining those family members eligible to make a claim for solatium damages, this Court previously determined that spouses, parents, children and siblings who survived the 9/11 decedent were entitled to recover for their losses and set forth a framework for other family relationships that fell outside of those four categories, “functional equivalents” of immediate family members such as step-relationships upon the satisfaction of certain criteria regarding the nature of their relationships. See 03-md-1570 (S.D.N.Y.) (GBD)(SN), Doc. No. 3363, Entered 10/14/2016. Those claimants appearing on Exhibit A fall into the four established categories of family relationships – spouses, parents, children and siblings – that are presumptively qualified to make a claim for solatium damages.

To fashion a solatium award adequately compensating the surviving family members in the litigation against Iran, this Court previously looked to the analysis undertaken by District Court Judge Royce Lamberth in the case of Estate of Heiser v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 466 F.Supp. 2d 229 (D.D.C. 2006). There, Judge Lamberth concluded that solatium damages should be awarded to each spouse of a deceased victim in the amount of $8 million, to each parent in the amount of $5 million, and to each sibling in the amount of $2.5 million. *Id.*³

³ This formula may be adjusted upward or downward when circumstances warrant. See, e.g., Estate of Bland v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 831 F.Supp. 2d 150, 156 (D.D.C. 2011); Valore, 700 F. Supp. 2d at 85.

Magistrate Judge Frank Maas previously recognized that the immediate family members of those killed in the September 11th terrorist attacks suffered and continue to suffer “profound agony and grief and, “[w]orse yet, ... are faced with frequent reminders of the events that day. See 03-md-1570 (02-cv-6977) (S.D.N.Y.) (GBD)(FM), Doc. No. 2618, Entered 07/30/12, pp. 10 – 12. Given the “extraordinarily tragic circumstances surrounding the September 11th attacks, and their indelible impact on the lives of the victims’ families,” Magistrate Judge Maas in his Report and Recommendation concluded that an upward departure was appropriate and recommended solatium damages in the following amounts:

Relationship to Decedent	Solatium Award
Spouse	$12,500,000
Parent	$8,500,000
Child	$8,500,000
Sibling	$4,250,000

Subsequently, Magistrate Judge Maas and Magistrate Judge Sarah Netburn issued Orders awarding solatium damages in the amounts set forth above to various groups of plaintiffs.

The losses claimed in this motion are legally and factually comparable to those suffered by the Ashton I-XII claimants, as well as the Burlingame I-VI claimants, in this litigation. Each of the deaths in this case were sudden and unexpected and were the result of the terrorism defendants’ extreme acts of malice. The decedents were civilians whose deaths were intended to create an environment of fear and terror. The claimants here were not attenuated victims but the immediate family members, or the functional equivalents, of the decedents and were directly and irrevocably harmed by the terrorist acts and consequences. Many family members can visit no private cemetery plot or gravestone to visit their loved ones but are instead resigned to never have the closure that might otherwise be expected after the death of an immediate family member. The amount of solatium damages previously adopted by the District Court in the other Ashton cases as well as the Burlingame I-VI claimants involved in this litigation should apply equally to the current Burlingame VIII claimants.

The relationships between the decedents and the Burlingame Plaintiffs are set forth in the accompanying Granito Declaration and Exhibit A thereto. As described in the Granito Declaration, all of the Burlingame VIII Plaintiffs in Exhibit A have direct relationships previously recognized as being presumptively qualified for solatium damages; the relationships between the Burlingame VIII Plaintiffs and the September 11th decedents have been verified; all of the Burlingame VIII Plaintiffs survived the deaths of their loved ones on September 11th; and counsel for the Burlingame VII Plaintiffs has complied with the safeguards required by the prior Orders of this court by verifying that none of the Burlingame VII Plaintiffs on Exhibit A has a prior judgment or another motion pending before this Court for compensation against Iran. The Burlingame VII plaintiffs therefore respectfully request that this Court issue a final judgment ordering payment of solatium damages to the Burlingame VIII Plaintiffs listed in Exhibit A, in the same amounts set forth above, based on their relationship with their decedents and as described in the Granito Declaration.

B. Prejudgment Interest

Additionally, the Burlingame VIII Plaintiffs ask that this Court direct that prejudgment interest of 4.96% on the solatium awards running from September 11, 2001 until the date of judgment to the extent that their injuries arose in New York be assessed, as was done previously in the Ashton I-III cases, as well as for the Burlingame I-VI claimants in this consolidated litigation.

C. Punitive Damages

Previously, in connection with a motion for final judgment on behalf of other Ashton claimants, this Court asked that to expedite issuance of final judgments, they defer decision as to the appropriate quantum of punitive damages. See 03-md-1570 (S.D.N.Y.) (GBD)(SN), Doc. No. 3362, Entered 10/14/2016. The Burlingame Plaintiffs ask that this Court allow them to submit future applications for punitive damages consistent with any future rulings of this Court.

II. Conclusion

For all the reasons herein, as well as those set forth in the previous submissions of the Ashton plaintiffs and specifically Burlingame I-VI plaintiffs, the Burlingame VIII plaintiffs set forth on Exhibit A respectfully request that this Court grant the proposed Order attached to the Granito Declaration as Exhibit B and (1) award solatium damages to immediate family members as set forth in the attached Exhibit A; (2) direct that prejudgment interest of 4.96% on the solatium awards running from September 11, 2001 until the date of judgment be assessed; and (3) permit Burlingame claimants to submit future applications for economic damages, punitive damages and/or solatium damages consistent with any future rulings of this Court and to the extent those awards have not been previously addressed.
